

Local Fare Scheme Application for Eligible Resident

On 20 July 2015, the Local Fare Scheme was introduced to make air travel more affordable for select communities in far north Queensland. Eligible Residents are eligible for a discount of up to $400 for return air travel around the Cape York and Torres Strait areas.

The minimum out-of-pocket return airfare payable by an eligible resident is $198 (including GST) plus booking fees after the scheme discount is applied. This means that, while the maximum discount is $400, in some cases the actual discount that an Eligible Resident will receive is less than $400.

The Local Fare Scheme is administered by the Queensland Department of Transport and Main Roads (TMR), with the assistance of local councils. This application form must be completed by a local resident who wishes to apply for a Letter of Eligibility through the resident's local council.

How do I qualify for the discounted airfares?

Step 1 – Complete this application form and submit it along with appropriate identification and proof of residency to your local council.

Step 2 – Council issues a Letter of Eligibility if you successfully demonstrate that you are an Eligible Resident – that is, that you currently live, and have lived for at least three years, in a local fare scheme region.

Step 3 – Make an Eligible Booking in person from a ticketing agent. You will need your Letter of Eligibility. You do not need your Letter of Eligibility for travel, only for purchase of the discounted airfare.

More details about the Local Fare Scheme, including:

- the airfares that are within the scope of the scheme
- conditions of the scheme
- councils through which applications can be submitted, can be found in the Local Fare Scheme Overview available at www.tmr.qld.gov.au/LocalFareScheme or through your local council. Some terms used in the application form, like 'Eligible Resident' and 'Eligible Booking', have the meaning given in that document.

If the applicant is under 18 years of age, a parent or guardian must sign this application form on behalf of the applicant.
